

Make sure to follow us on Facebook, Pinterest and Twitter to stay up to date on the latest and greatest.

Digital Opportunity Hemingway

Hemingway is the subject of Hemingway, a three-part documentary series coming to PBS on April 5-7. The film, directed by Ken Burns and Lynn Novick, will examine Hemingway's greatest works while also offering an in-depth look at the man who left an indelible mark on 20th-century American literature. As a companion to the broadcast, educator resources that focus on topics in English language arts and social studies, while weaving in media literacy, can be found on PBS LearningMedia.

Kids & Family Friendship bracelets

Creating a culture of kindness in a classroom, team or even a family reaps endless positivity! Friendship bracelets are a simple, accessible, super fun way for kids to reach out and connect with others. Abby Brown and her friend Zoey show you three simple ways to make friendship bracelets using basic household or classroom materials!

Early Childhood Good to Know

Good to Know is a digital video series for adults that introduces the methods, vocabulary and processes their child learns at school. These short, clear and fun videos will help to explain math topics that are taught in Common Core curricula. The videos will help develop a conceptual understanding of how math practices build on previous knowledge and empower parents and caregivers to help their children learn foundational math skills!

Elementary Iowa History Month

March is Iowa History Month! If you are looking for ways to celebrate with your class, dive into these classroom-ready resources from Iowa PBS. Hundreds of standards-aligned resources exploring natural history, politics, civil rights, industry, agriculture and conflicts are ready for use with your students. Explore the video, images, stories, activities and first-person accounts that make Iowa a unique state.

Secondary

Iowa's support of the arts

From opera houses to modern day theaters and performing arts centers, Iowans are known for their support of the creative arts and the people who produce artistic works. One of the most famous American works of art, "American Gothic," was painted by Iowan Grant Wood. Created using the painting style called Regionalism, this art and artist are so central to Iowa that the Iowa quarter is based on another Grant Wood painting, "Arbor Day." Learn more about visual and performing arts in Iowa.

 Send to a Colleague

STAY CONNECTED:

Iowa PBS Education | 1.800.532.1290 | Email | Website